

2023

ECOLOGICAL STATE POSTER COMPETITION

THEME

Montenegro was the first country in the world proclaimed as an ecological country in 1991, in Žabljak in the Durmitor National Park – exactly where the Wild Beauty Art Festival is taking place, showcasing high quality art programs in place of (still) astonishing natural beauty. Although a noble idea for a small country and its citizens, the reality, 31 years after, is quite different.

What does an “ecological country” mean for you and how to fight for such a great idea against corrupted political structures? How can a country be greener and more careful about its natural environment and how to force those in power to fulfil the green agenda?

ENTRANT CRITERIA

Ecological Country is a new themed competition that is a part of the Wild Beauty Art festival 2023. It is open to all graphic designers interested in the discipline of poster art.

HOW TO APPLY:

By filling in the application form, the entrants accept the terms of the organizer of the exhibition. The Selection Board is entitled to reject those works that are not in agreement with the undisputed world standards on human rights to identity, nation, religion, language and the like. The organizers have no authorities to transfer any rights to third party in the sense of using and reproduction of works. The entrants accept that their work can be used in non-commercial purposes as well as in the promotion of the organizer.

SUBMISSION PROCEDURES

Poster entries MUST be submitted via this website as digital files, using the online ENTRY FORM. Through the electronic submission process, an entry form and labels will be automatically generated. Information on the entry form will be used in the exhibition’s catalog and Wild Beauty Art festival publications.

PLEASE, CAREFULLY READ ENTRY GUIDELINES BEFORE SUBMITTING POSTERS.
ENTRY GUIDELINES

All posters must be submitted digitally through this website, using the online ENTRY FORM.
